

Ian Hyland

Ian became a General member in December 2017. He originally trained as a chef and spent 10 years working in London restaurants. He has since spent 30 years in the food industry with businesses including Forte Hotels, Pepsico, Padley's and Moy Park. Ian is responsible for the Foodservice Commercial activities of Moy Park in the UK and Europe and has operational responsibility for two factories in Peterborough and Huntingdon. He holds a Diploma in Management Studies and studied for an MBA with the Open University. He has a particular interest in developing people, coaching and mentoring.

Ian lives in Grantham and has two grown up children and a step daughter. An unashamed foodie he loves cooking and eating out. Other interests include walking their dogs and cycling for charity.
