

Dr Joanne Smith – Staff Member

Dr Jo Smith is a Senior Lecturer in Health and Social Care at Bishop Grosseteste University. She is a qualified social worker, having worked in the drug and mental health field in Manchester and Huddersfield, before becoming an academic, teaching Social Work and Health and Social Care at the University of Manchester, the University of Plymouth and Nottingham Trent University prior to her current position. She is interested in education at FE and HE level as well as issues of safeguarding which was the focus of her PhD. She is new to the role of Governor at Grantham College but keen to get involved.